Resolution #83 Computer Bid

Be it hereby enacted by the Town Board of the Town of Albion as follows:

WHEREAS, pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 103 the Town of Albion advertised in the Daily News for bids for a computer system including a multifunction copier and service agreement; and

WHEREAS, the date for bid opening was set for October 4, 2010 at 10:00 a.m.; and

WHEREAS, a total of three (3) bids were submitted pursuant to the bid request, to wit: Alpha Computing, Inc. of Geneva, New York; C&H PC, Inc. of Medina, New York; and Duplicating Consultants, Inc. of Buffalo, New York; and

WHEREAS, on October 4, 2010 at a regular meeting of the Town Board for the Town of Albion the award for the aforementioned bid was unanimously awarded to Duplicating Consultants, Inc as the lowest responsible bidder; and

WHEREAS, subsequent to the awarding of said bid it was discovered that the bid specification submitted by Duplicating Consultants did not in two locations match the bid specifications that were attached in the Notice to Bidders; and

WHEREAS, it also appeared in the bid submitted by Duplicating Consultants that the component parts of the desktop computers were substantially the same as the laptop computers; and

WHEREAS, upon review of the Duplicating Consultants bid the Town Board determines that the variance from the bid specifications as set forth in the Notice to Bidders is a mere irregularity and it would be in the best interest of the Town to accept said bid based on the technical non-compliance; and

October 18, 2010

WHEREAS, accepting the Duplicating Consultant bid does not place said bidder at a substantial advantage or grant the bidder a benefit not enjoyed by the other bidders; and

WHEREAS, the Town Board has determined Duplicating Consultants bid as presented contains minor variations from the terms as advertised, is not material and does not impair the interests of the Town of Albion nor does it place the other bidders at a competitive disadvantage;

NOW, THEREFORE, after review of the facts and circumstances leading up to the submission of the bids for the computer system including a multifunction copier and service agreement

BE IT RESOLVED, that the bid for the computer systems including a multifunction copier and service agreement is awarded to Duplicating Consultants, Inc. of Buffalo, New York on the condition that the misprint of the component parts of the laptop computers and the desktop computers shall be modified so that the component parts of said computers will substantially comply with the bid specifications and that the bids submitted by Duplicating Consultants will remain the same; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the memory of the server for the computer system as bid by Duplicating Consultants is in substantial compliance with that called for in the Notice to Bidders and be it further

RESOLVED, the Town Board for the Town of Albion hereby finds that the initial bid submitted by Duplicating Consultants is a mere irregularity and that it is in the best interest of the Town of Albion to accept said bid; and be it further

RESOLVED, the modification of Duplicating Consultants, Inc. bid does not give said entity a substantial advantage or benefit not enjoyed by the other bidders; and be it further

RESOLVED, the variance of Duplicating Consultants, Inc. in its bid as compared to the specification in the NOTICE TO BIDDERS is not material.
